1. Overview of Business Results, Etc.

(1) Overview of business results

The Nichii Group (the "Group") is promoting the enhancement of its revenue base through the medical support business, the long-term care business and the childcare business as its core operations, structural reforms of the education business and the global (China) business and far-sighted growth investments in order to establish a business foundation that will lead to long-term, stable growth by responding and contributing to the diversification of social issues and needs, with the aim of realizing its medium-term management plan VISION 2025.

In the fiscal year under review, net sales marked a record high for the 12th consecutive year with net sales remaining firm in the core operations of the medical support, long-term care and childcare businesses due to the field-based business reforms and strengthened area management. In addition, the profit level of the entire Group improved thanks to progress in the reduction of fixed costs based on structural reforms of the education and global (China) businesses through selection and concentration.

The Group also promoted growth investments for the purpose of strengthening its business foundation through the reorganization of home-visit care service offices and securing and retaining human resources, which are the source of its service supply capacity, including a continuous improvement in employee treatment and investments in human resources to accept foreign staff.

As a result, net sales totaled 297,965 million yen (up 3.5% year on year), operating income amounted to 12,162 million yen (up 21.2% year on year), ordinary income came to 7,483 million yen (up 31.2% year on year), and profit attributable to owners of parent stood at 4,058 million yen (down 33.6% year on year).

Business results for the fiscal year under review are as follows.

<Medical Support Segment>

Net sales were 114,325 million yen (compared with 107,768 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating income was 9,730 million yen (compared with 9,246 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

In the hospital segment, the Group promoted an improvement in operation efficiency and the rationalization of working hours in medical institutions by which the Group is contracted and focused on contract rationalization through negotiations with the medical institutions. In the medical education segment, the number of students taking medical courses increased steadily due to active promotional efforts, and this resulted in the strengthening of the segment's human resource supply capacity.

In the fiscal year under review, the Group also consolidated Yao Medical PFI Co., Ltd., a specified purpose company that operated the PFI project of Yao Municipal Hospital in Osaka.

As a result, net sales increased mainly due to the expansion of the contracted business and the new consolidation of Yao Medical PFI Co., Ltd. Operating income rose, reflecting enhanced revenue due to contract rationalization and an improvement in productivity based on higher operating efficiency.

<Long-Term Care Segment>

Net sales were 153,788 million yen (compared with 151,426 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating income was 15,857 million yen (compared with 16,383 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

The in-home care service segment restructured its system of delivering services by splitting and newly establishing home-visit care service offices as a growth strategy that will contribute to the development of the community-based integrated care system, in addition to efforts to secure and retain care workers and strengthen its ability to respond to users in moderate and severe conditions. The split and the new establishment of a total of 402 offices had been completed as of the end of March 2020, and the segment worked to organize operation systems and improve the management system based on the home-visit care service organization that has 1,405 offices.

The residential care service segment established one fee-based nursing home and one group home in the fiscal year under review and worked to shorten the vacancy period after occupants moved out to raise the occupancy rate.

As a result, net sales grew due to an increase in users and a rise in the operating rate of residential care service facilities. Operating income decreased because of upfront investments associated with the restructuring of home-visit care service offices.

< Childcare Segment>

Net sales were 15,220 million yen (compared with 12,559 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating income was 373 million yen (compared with 206 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

In the fiscal year under review, the Group opened 52 new childcare facilities and operated 251 facilities across Japan. The Group worked to raise the operating rate of new and existing childcare centers to reduce the number of children on waiting lists and contribute to the social advancement of women by promoting an approach to local governments and actively transmitting information using the website for licensed childcare centers and by strengthening sales to corporations and expanding the regional usage limits for corporate-run childcare centers.

As a result, net sales and operating income increased, reflecting a rise in the number of children using the facilities due to improved marketing and an increase in locations, as well as the improved operating rate of existing facilities.

<Health Care Segment>

Net sales were 1,704 million yen (compared with 1,632 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating loss was 2,144 million yen (compared with an operating loss of 1,148 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

The segment operates Nichii Life, which offers housekeeping and family long-term care services, and the Sunny Maid Service, which provides housekeeping services in Japan's National Strategic Special Zones. The segment worked to acquire new customers through promotional efforts that captured seasonal demand, improve its service quality and enhance its ability to encourage a shift to fixed-term plans. In the Sunny Maid Service, the segment began providing services in Aichi Prefecture in September 2019. In addition, the segment made human resource investments for the acceptance of foreign workers in anticipation of the expansion of the housekeeping service market and synergetic effects with the long-term care business.

Consequently, net sales grew thanks to a rise in the number of the users due to strengthened sales promotion, expanded areas and improved customer satisfaction. Operating loss increased due to a rise in expenses for human resource investments.

<Education Segment>

Net sales were 10,359 million yen (compared with 11,937 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating loss was 1,330 million yen (compared with an operating loss of 4,110 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

In the fiscal year under review, the withdrawal from the COCO Juku business was completed, and the franchise schools of COCO Juku Junior and New York University School of Professional Studies Tokyo were closed in March 2020.

Gaba Corporation ("Gaba"), a subsidiary, worked to improve the quality of lessons and the student support system and ran promotions using TV ads and publicity posters in trains to increase the number of students in its one-to-one English conversation lessons.

As a consequence, net sales decreased due to a fall in the number of students associated with the closure of the former COCO Juku classes and a fall in the number of business days at Gaba as a result of measures (temporary cancellation of classes) to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 coronavirus. Operating loss was smaller due to the reduction of fixed costs.

<Therapy Segment>

Net sales were 594 million yen (compared with 412 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating loss was 192 million yen (compared with an operating loss of 383 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

The segment operates 24 stores nationwide of the A-LOVE dog salon and hotel brand. Active promotional efforts through the website and social media and the strengthened ability to propose services tailored to individual customers led to an improvement in customer satisfaction.

This resulted in sales growth and a reduction in operating loss thanks to an increase in new and returning customers and a rise in sales per customer.

<Global Segment>

Net sales were 1,646 million yen (compared with 1,851 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating loss was 504 million yen (compared with an operating loss of 1,246 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

The segment focused on the reorganization of the local system in the China business through selection and concentration and the cultivation of demand for the long-term care business in China. In the fiscal year under review, the segment strengthened sales promotion to acquire contracts for the operation of facilities for dementia patients and contracts for the outside sales training business and the consulting business for the start-up of long-term care facilities in northern China.

As a result, net sales declined associated with the consolidation of business areas due to the reorganization. Operating loss was reduced because of an improvement in operation efficiency due to the concentration of management resources.

Because local subsidiaries in China close the books in December, the coronavirus did not have an impact in the fiscal year under review.

<Other Segments>

Net sales were 326 million yen (compared with 294 million yen in the previous fiscal year). Operating income was 216 million yen (compared with 228 million yen in the previous fiscal year).

Goods management of the Nichii Group and the provision of auxiliary services exerted synergy effects and supported the activities of Group companies.

This resulted in growth in sales but a decline in profit.
